

Declaring Convictions – Scotland

The Rehabilitation of Offenders Act (Exclusions and Exceptions) (Scotland) Amendment Order 2018

The post that you have applied for requires a basic, standard or enhanced disclosure or is one where your normal duties include regulated work and requires a PVG disclosure in accordance with at least one of the following pieces of legislation:-

- Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) order 1975 (as amended)
- Exclusions and Exceptions (Scotland) Order 2013 (as amended)
- Protection of Vulnerable Groups (Scotland) Act 2007 (as amended)
- Police Act 1997 (as amended)

You are therefore required to disclose certain convictions or admonishments together with any other relevant non conviction information as requested below. Having a criminal record will not necessarily be a bar to working or volunteering with us. We will consider any information disclosed fairly and in accordance with the requirements of Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974.

This guidance relates to convictions or admonishments in Scotland. If you have any vetting information from England, Wales or Northern Ireland, you should refer to that country’s guidance on what to disclose.

Data Protection Act 2018

The information given in this form will be treated in strict confidence. When completed, document contains sensitive personal data as defined by the Data Protection Act 2018 and will be used only for the purpose it was requested and handled in accordance with the Act.

SPENT CONVICTIONS

This section should only be completed if you will be applying for a standard, enhanced or PVG disclosure. Do not complete this section if you are applying for a basic disclosure.

The 2018 amendment order gives 2 lists of spent convictions.

Convictions detailed in Appendix 1 should only be detailed if 15 years from the date of conviction have not passed unless you were imprisoned or detained in a young offender institution for over 30 months in which case you must always disclose this information. Those in appendix 2 should only be disclosed if they are still within the rehabilitation periods detailed in the table at the end of Appendix 2. If you have any convictions for offences detailed in these lists which have passed the timescales detailed above, you should not disclose these on this form, however, please be aware that if you are applying for a Standard, Enhanced or PVG disclosure, this information can be released on your certificate for longer than the normal rehabilitation period (see Conviction Disclosure Guidelines table below). Disclosure Scotland will notify you if you have any convictions which fall under this extended disclosure period as you can (if you wish) apply to have this information removed from your disclosure. Where such information is released, we will discuss this with you when we receive our copy of your disclosure. Please note that applying to have this information removed does not guarantee its removal, the final decision on this will be made by a Sheriff.

If you have any convictions for offences detailed in these lists, you must provide this information here.
